

FREAR SAYS NO

Owing to reports that Governor Frear might take the position of chief justice, he was asked today if there was any prospect of his seeking the position. He replied that he had never been approached with regard to the matter, and he did not think that he would be. Besides that, he had no desire to be chief justice again.

The Governor stated today that so far there had been no developments in regard to the matter of appointing a successor to Chief Justice Hartwell. As far as he knew, there had been no cablegrams from Judge Hatch as to whether he would accept the position if it were offered to him.

Further question here depends upon the attitude taken by Judge Hatch. If he signifies his willingness to take the place, there will be a strong feeling in the bar association in favor of recommending him. As there is also a strong Cooper feeling, the chances of a divided vote are good.

United States Judge A. G. M. Robertson is also likely to receive endorsements by the bar.

Andrews Is Near Death

(Wireless to The Star.)

HILO, February 3.—Lorin A. Andrews, district magistrate of South Hilo, is dying.

Judge Andrews is one of the best known citizens of Hawaii. He was sheriff of the big island for many years and made a high record of efficiency. He was appointed district magistrate by Chief Justice Hartwell, to succeed Judge Hapjai. Last year Mr. Andrews suffered a very severe illness and came to Honolulu for an operation, which was performed at the Queen's Hospital.

Our San Francisco Letter

By Ernest N. Smith.

(Special Correspondence of The Star.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—The aviation meet, which started early in January with brilliant flights of Latham and Radley over San Francisco, has just been brought to a dismal close on account of a heavy storm, which prevented the airmen from trying to fly for days at a time. Only the bad weather prevented a meet brilliant in every respect, but continued disappointments owing to rains caused people to lose interest in the meet, and from an assemblage of nearly 200,000 on the first Sunday of the meet, the final day saw a scant 5000 people on hand to bid the bird-men farewell.

Lack of the spectacular features which characterized the meet at Los Angeles are compensated for by the military importance of what the bird-

"Makiki Beautiful" The Latest Land Cry

There is about to burst into bloom a new garden in the heart of Honolulu's residence district. It is the Makiki tract and has been christened "Makiki Beautiful." The property is owned by the real estate firm of Dondero & Lansing, is about twenty-four acres in area, containing sixty-seven lots, and is bounded by Wilder, Pihoi, Kewalo and Lunallilo streets, with Liholiho street running through the center. The tract has been open to the public for only a few weeks. Half a dozen houses are going up and the next few months will witness great activity in this section. The partners do not encourage the erection of any building to cost less than two thousand dollars, the idea being to maintain the class of the district. Cement sidewalks have been laid all about the property and each resident will have the facilities of gas, sewer, water and electric connections.

Forester Hosmer will plant flowering trees along the streets and avenues. Pihoi is to be framed in golden shower and Kewalo street will be lined with the blushing poinciana.

SCHWERIN SAYS HONOLULU LACKS HOTEL ROOM; BUT STEAMSHIP SERVICE WILL BE ADEQUATE

In today's steamship Korea mail Secretary H. P. Wood of the promotion committee received the following from R. P. Schwerin, manager of the Pacific Mail S. S. Co.:

I have your letter of January 6th, together with enclosures, and note you ask me to furnish you a paper relating to the development and outlook for travel on the Pacific, to be read before the Pan-Pacific Travel Congress.

I should be very glad to comply with your request, but as you know I have been in the Orient almost six months and after having been in San Francisco but a few weeks, am now called East. The result is I am extremely busy during the few days left me to try to clean up the matters which accumulated during my absence, and it will be absolutely impossible for me to give the time and

CARTER TELLS OF SEEING TAFT

George R. Carter, formerly Hawaii's governor, who returned from round the world trip per Korea this morning, heard Mr. Taft exclaim "Poor Hawaii!" That's how Taft wound up an interview with Carter with reference to the appointment of Cottrill as internal revenue collector here, after the president had said "I must have forgotten about the recommendations coming from Hawaii," Cottrill meanwhile having received the presidential endorsement.

Carter presented the matter of a suitable appointment to Taft, following a cable forwarded the former from Honolulu, the president not having at that time made up his mind.

Carter stood for a local man as being more satisfactory to Honolulu people and as a local man would know more about the business.

Taft said he would do nothing without a careful consideration of the case. Cottrill is the result.

KOREA LATER THAN EXPECTED

With close upon 200 cabin passengers on board and a full cargo, the Pacific Mail steamer Korea arrived in port this morning. Though the vessel was expected to be off the port at seven o'clock it was not until 8:25 that she was reported from Koko Head, and an hour and a half later the quarantine flag fluttered down from the peak, just as the bark R. P. Rithet was passing out of the harbor.

Of the passengers on board 108 were for Honolulu, 35 for Hong Kong, 25 for Manila, eleven for Yokohama, ten for Nagasaki, seven for Kobe and two for Shanghai, but of these twelve elected to lay over in Honolulu until the next Orient-bound vessel came along, or later still if it suited them.

LATEST FILIPINOS.

The last batch of Filipinos who arrived from the islands to work on the plantations here are now confined in the Planters' shed and are under the direct control of Dr. Pratt. Of the 110 who arrived about forty are classified as undesirables from hook-worm, and they are quite numerous, are being treated and it is expected all will be cured.

WITHOUT SALARY.

At the supervisors' meeting last night Mayor Fern offered appointments without salary of James Gibb, overseer Ewa district; Frederick Myer, Waianae; H. H. Piomer, Waianae; L. L. McCandless, Koolapoko. All were referred to a later meeting for ratification.
